CHAPTER 1 - THE APPELLATE DEPARTMENT OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

1.1 Appellate Department Management (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/06.)

The Presiding Judge of the Appellate Department of the Superior Court shall supervise the business of the department. All motions, including ex parte applications for orders, shall be presented to the Presiding Judge of the Appellate Division. The Presiding Judge may act on routine matters, or may schedule a motion or other matter for hearing before the panel at his or her discretion.

All final rulings on the merits of limited jurisdiction civil and criminal appeals are decided by a majority of a three-judge panel of the Appellate Department of the Superior Court, except that appeals of traffic infraction cases are heard by one judge of the Appellate Department. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/06.)

1.2 Filing of Appeal, Briefing and Hearing Dates (Eff. 7/1/98.)

Appeal papers shall be filed with the clerk. Briefing and hearing dates will be set by the court. Each party shall ensure that complete documentation is submitted in a timely manner. (Eff. 7/1/98.)

1.3 Briefing Procedure (Eff. 7/1/98.)

- (a) An original and three copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk. Notwithstanding the California Rules of Court, briefs shall not be bound.
- (b) All briefs shall include appropriate points and authorities, clear identification of the issue(s) being raised and valid proof of service. Because appeals are concerned with issues of law, mere factual arguments will generally be insufficient. If applicable, a reporter's transcript and/or a settled statement on appeal shall be submitted.
- (c) A party may file a request for an extension of time to comply with the briefing schedule with the Presiding Judge of the Appellate Department. Such request shall include a separate declaration providing good cause for the extension of time and a proposed order. The request shall be filed prior to the expiration of the applicable filing deadline.
- (d) Failure of the appellant to file a timely opening brief or to otherwise comply with applicable rules may result in dismissal of the appeal. (Eff. 7/1/98.)

1.4 Prerogative Writs (Eff. 1/1/04.)

- (a) Service of Petition. Code of Civil Procedure section 1107 requires service of the verified petition before it is filed, and also requires that the application for a writ be accompanied by proof of service of a copy of the application upon the

- respondent and the real party in interest. The petition may be filed without a proof of service, but no action will be taken on the petition unless there is compliance with the service provisions of Code of Civil Procedure sections 1107 and 1088.5 and paragraph “(e) 1.” below.
- (b) Manner of Service. A petition must be served in the same manner as summons and complaint.
  - (c) Persons to be Served. Where the respondent or real party in interest is a board or commission, service must be made upon the presiding officer, or upon the secretary, or upon a majority of the members of such board or commission.
  - (d) Orders to Show Cause and Motions.
    - (1) Motions. The hearing on a petition is the trial of the case. It may be set by noticed motion in the manner generally governing motions. Absent a need to appear ex parte for a stay or other temporary order, use of the motion procedure is preferred.
    - (2) Order to Show Cause. The hearing on a petition may be set by order to show cause but this is rarely done.
  - (e) Alternative Writ.
    - (1) Prior Service of Application. Absent a declaration showing good cause or written waiver by the responding party, an alternative writ will not issue unless the application is served at least five (5) days before the ex parte hearing.
    - (2) Briefing Schedule and Hearing Date. Issuance of the alternative writ places the matter on the Court's calendar for hearing; it does not, in and of itself, accomplish a stay or afford any affirmative relief. If issued, the alternative writ must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action unless the court orders otherwise. [See, Code Civ. Proc., § 1073.] A briefing schedule will be set by the Court at the time the alternative writ is issued.
  - (f) Pleadings. The rules of practice governing civil actions are generally applicable. The respondent may file a demurrer, motion to strike or answer, or otherwise appear. A writ of mandate cannot, however, be granted by default; the case must be heard by the Court whether the adverse party appears. [Code Civ. Proc., § 1088.]
  - (g) Evidence. In administrative mandate proceedings (Code Civ. Proc., § 1094.5) the evidence before the court is confined to the administrative record, unless the exception in subdivision (e) of Section 1094.5 applies and a declaration establishes the application of the exception. In other kinds of writ proceedings, evidence is presented by way of declarations, deposition testimony, etc., and not by oral testimony unless the court, in its discretion, permits it. Setting the writ for hearing before the record is prepared or before the evidence is gathered serves only to unnecessarily clog the court's calendar since the hearing must be continued if the record is not available or the evidence otherwise is incomplete.

- (h) Scope of Review. The scope of the court's review (i.e., "substantial evidence" vs. "independent judgment") depends upon the nature of the relief sought and a variety of other factors. The parties must state their position on this issue in the memoranda filed in support of and in opposition of the issuance of the writ. (Eff. 1/1/04.)

CHAPTER 2 - GENERAL RULES

2.1 Scope of Rules (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/01.)

2.6 State Rules and Corresponding Local Rules (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/01.)

The California Rules of Court are not printed as part of the Calaveras County Local Rules but are considered incorporated within them. Proceedings in the Superior Court of Calaveras County are governed by the California Rules of Court as supplemented by these local rules. Each Local Rule must be read in conjunction with the California Rules of Court. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/01.)

2.7 Amendment, Addition or Repeal of these Rules - Sanctions for Failure to Comply with Rules (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/01.)

These Local Rules may be adopted, amended or repealed by the majority vote of the judges of both courts at any judges meeting. Any rules adopted or amended shall be effective subject to the notice and publication requirements of Code of Civil Procedure §575.1 and the requirements of Government Code §68071.

These Rules, where applicable to civil actions and proceedings and as amended from time to time, are adopted pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §575.1. Any counsel, party represented by counsel, or party appearing in pro per, who fails to comply with any of the requirements set forth in these Rules shall, upon motion of a party or the court, be subject to the sanctions set forth in Code of Civil Procedure §575.2, Code of Civil Procedure §177.5 and California Rules of Court, Rule 227. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/01.)

2.8 Appearance for Another Attorney (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 7/1/02.)

An attorney who appears for another attorney is representing the party then before the court. As provided by the California Rules of Professional Conduct, such attorney is required to do so competently and is expected to be prepared to carry out and perform any duties required by the court, to have authority to make appropriate dispositions or calendar settings and the duty to communicate any orders the court may issue to the client and attorney of record. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 7/1/02.)

2.9 Official Reporting Services (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/05.)

- (a) Court Reporter Availability - Pursuant to Rule 891 of the California Rules of Court, the following enumerates the departments and proceedings for which the services of official court reporters are normally available:

Dept. 1 - Criminal Proceedings
Juvenile Proceedings
Regularly scheduled Civil Law and Motion calendar (subject to availability of official reporter)
Domestic Violence Prevention Act Restraining Orders (subject to availability of official reporter)
Civil Harassment Restraining Orders (subject to availability of official reporter)

Dept. 2 - Criminal Proceedings (with the exception of infractions and subject to availability of official reporter in misdemeanor proceedings.)

Dept. 4 - Family Support Calendar (subject to availability of official reporter)

All Other Departments - Mandated Proceedings only.

- (b) Request for Reporter Services - The services of an official reporter are not normally available for trials or long cause hearings other than criminal or juvenile proceedings. Any party requesting the services of an official reporter at trial or hearing must file a written statement with the court at least twenty (20) days prior to the trial or hearing date. If it appears to the court that the services of an official reporter will not be available, the clerk will notify the party of that fact as soon as possible before the trial or hearing. The party will then need to make arrangements for the presence of a pro tempore court reporter.
- (c) Payment for Reporter Services - Where the services of an official reporter are provided for trials or long cause hearings other than criminal or juvenile proceedings, the party requesting the services of the court reporter must pay the required fee pursuant to Government Code Section 68086 as set forth in the court's fee schedule to the Clerk of the Court prior to the trial or hearing and provide proof of payment to the court reporter prior to commencement of the proceedings.

- (d) Electronic Recording as Official Record – Pursuant to Rules 187.5, 890, and 980.5 of the California Rules of Court, the court's electronic recording system shall be the official reporting service for infractions, and upon order of the court, in misdemeanor and limited civil proceedings. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/05.)

2.10 Filing and Format of Documents (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/05.)

- (a) All papers submitted for filing shall conform to California Rules of Court, Rule 201. The clerk will endorse up to three copies of each document filed. It is recommended that all original signatures be in blue ink.
- (b) Except where leave of court has been granted, the clerk shall not accept for filing any papers, documents, exhibits or dividers presented on pink or yellow paper.
- (c) Documents may be submitted for filing as follows: in person at the clerk's filing window; by depositing the documents into the drop box located adjacent to the clerk's filing window; or by mailing them to the court.
- (d) Documents deposited in the drop-off box must be in a sealed envelope and accompanied by the appropriate filing fee and a self addressed stamped envelope if return conformed copies are desired. Filings and pleadings deposited in the drop box prior to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except court holidays, will reflect the date of deposit. Documents left in the drop box after 4:00 p.m. will be filed as of the following court business day. Matters requiring immediate judicial attention should never be placed in the drop-off box. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 1/1/05.)

2.11 Sealed / Confidential Records (Eff. 1/1/02; As amended eff. 7/1/05.)

Unless confidentiality is required by law, court records in both criminal and general civil cases are presumed to be open to the public for inspection. For all records filed where confidentiality is required by law, the document caption or title shall state "CONFIDENTIAL" with an accompanying citation to the applicable law requiring such confidentiality. An agreement or stipulation between the parties for confidentiality or sealing of a document filed with the court is legally insufficient. The law requires court findings prior to sealing any records. The party filing a "confidential" report shall, at the time of filing the document, submit an 8 ½ by 11 inch envelop with the document title, case number and the word "confidential" printed prominently on the outside. For any court record a party wishes to be "sealed" from public inspection, the party shall follow those procedures set out in California Rules of Court, rul 243.2. (Eff. 1/1/02; As amended eff. 7/1/05.)

2.12 Ex Parte or Informal Communication with the Court (Eff. 1/1/02; As amended, eff. 7/1/04.)

- (a) The Court will not consider any ex parte communications from counsel or self-represented parties unless made in the manner prescribed by these Rules, by the California Rules of Court, or by the laws of this State. Except as permitted by law, lawyers and parties shall avoid ex parte communications on the substance of a pending case with a judge or his or her research staff before whom such case is pending. Applications to the Court for an order or other relief should never be made by letter. Letters or other communications between counsel should not be sent to judges or his or her research staff.
- (b) Where applicable laws or rules permit an ex parte application or communication to the court and there are no grounds for waiver of notice, the following duties apply: (1) Before making such an application or communication, an attorney must make diligent efforts to notify the opposing party or opposing counsel known to represent or likely to represent the opposing party; (2) The moving party must make reasonable efforts to accommodate the schedule of such attorney or party to permit the opposing party to be represented; and (3) The moving party must avoid taking advantage of an opponent's known absence from the office. Counsel shall be mindful of Rule 5-300(b) of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California, concerning ex parte communications with the Court. (Eff. 1/1/02; As amended, eff. 7/1/04.)

2.13 Foreign Language Interpreters (Eff. 7/1/03.)

- (a) In all proceedings, except juvenile or criminal proceedings, counsel or self-represented litigants requiring the assistance of a foreign language interpreter for a non-English speaking party or witness at hearing or trial must make all necessary arrangements prior to the trial or hearing for the presence of an appropriate interpreter.
- (b) In juvenile or criminal proceedings, where an interpreter is required at hearing or trial for a non-English speaking party or witness, counsel for the prosecution or defense must notify the court, in writing, as soon as the need for the interpreter is determined. For each non-English speaking party or witness, the court must be provided with the date of the hearing, the name of the person for whom the interpreter is requested, the person's role in the proceeding and the foreign language spoken, including the dialect where applicable. The Court will make arrangements for the foreign language interpreter to be present at the trial or hearing and, pursuant to Rule 810 of the California Rules of Court will pay the related costs. Counsel must immediately notify the court upon learning that the services of the interpreter are not required. Failure to timely notify the court of the cancellation of the need for an interpreter may result in an order for reimbursement to the court for any cancellation fee the court is required to pay to the interpreter.

- (c) The Court will not involve itself in the provision of foreign language interpreter services other than at trial or hearing in criminal and juvenile proceedings. (Eff. 7/1/03.)

2.14 Calendaring Requests (Eff. 7/1/03.)

All requests to place matters on the court's calendar for hearing on any civil, criminal, probate, family law, unlawful detainer or juvenile matter must be made in writing and presented or delivered for filing at the court clerk's filing window. Where there is no formal pleading demonstrating proper notice was given to all parties, and absent the written agreement of all parties, the written request to calendar a matter for hearing must be filed at least 24 hours before the requested hearing date and time. A party or attorney requesting to calendar a matter for hearing is directed to local form "Application for Immediate Court Hearing and Order" found in Appendix A to these rules. (Eff. 7/1/03.)

2.15 Bulky and Hazardous Exhibits (Eff. 1/1/04.)

- (a) The Executive Officer/Clerk of the Calaveras County Court will not accept or retain exhibits that are bulky<sup>1</sup>, heavy<sup>2</sup> or designated as hazardous waste material<sup>3</sup>.
- (b) Pursuant to Penal Code Section 1417.3(b) and upon a finding of good cause, certain toxic materials may be brought into a courtroom and introduced into evidence provided they remain at all times in a sealed condition and properly labeled as to the exact contents thereof. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the person bringing the evidence into the courtroom shall retain it and shall be responsible for the storage of the evidence and for the production and substitution of a photograph record in lieu of the evidence.
- (c) In the event the court does not order the substitution of a photograph and/or technical report for the actual controlled substance evidence, the evidence shall be stored by the person delivering it into the courtroom until it is eligible for destruction.
- (d) Additional exhibits which are not to be sent to the courts' exhibits custodian, unless there is a court order for the court to retain them, include the following:
  - (1) Any type of explosive powder.
  - (2) Any explosive chemical such as toluene, ethane, etc.
  - (3) Any explosive device such as a pipe bomb, hand grenade, etc.
  - (4) Any flammable device such as a Molotov cocktail.

CHAPTER 3 - CIVIL RULES

3.1 Ex Parte Applications (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 7/1/05.)

- (a) An “Ex Parte” Application is a request for a court order where the applicant has not provided all opposing parties with regular written advance notice of the request. This court recognizes two types of ex-parte applications: (1) routine ex-parte applications; and (2) extraordinary ex-parte applications.
- (b) Routine Ex-Parte Applications: No hearing is required and the applicant is not required to file local form Application for Immediate Court Hearing and Order for the following ex-parte applications:
  - (1) All parties stipulate in writing to the requested orders.
  - (2) Application for waiver of court fees and costs.
  - (3) Application for appointment of guardian ad litem to initiate action.
  - (4) Application for appointment of counsel.
  - (5) Request for order to show cause without temporary orders.
  - (6) Request to file documents which exceed applicable page limits.
  - (7) Application for default judgment.
  - (8) Request for order shortening time in Family Code matters where the request to shorten time is made on the Judicial Council form and supported by a sufficient factual showing in the attached application.

  - (10) Temporary restraining order applications authorized under the Code of Civil Procedure and submitted on Judicial Council forms containing a clear and convincing showing of facts of unlawful violence or credible threat of violence against all the requested protected persons.
  - (11) Petition for Appointment of Temporary Conservator where the petitioner is the Calaveras County Public Guardian or Director of Behavioral Health Services.
- (c) Extraordinary Ex-Parte Applications: All ex-parte applications not listed as routine ex-parte applications above are considered extraordinary ex-parte applications. - (d) Court Review: The adequacy of the application for ex-parte orders will be determined on the papers submitted. The application must contain sufficient evidentiary facts to justify granting the prayer. Conclusions or statements of ultimate facts are not sufficient. A foundation should be set forth establishing the affiant's personal knowledge. Attorney declarations based upon information and belief are insufficient to establish evidentiary facts. It is recommended that all ex parte applications for temporary relief be filed with the court by 4:00 P.M. the day before the hearing at which ex parte relief will be requested. - (b) A defendant who has requested trial by declaration must file the declaration, under penalty of perjury, and post the required bail on or before the hearing date assigned by the Clerk. ### 5.2 Setting Family Law Motion Hearings (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended, eff. 7/1/05.)

- (a) Introduction. Generally, family law motions are set for a court hearing date which is approximately four weeks after the moving party files the motion paperwork with the court (See "Standard Practice" below). Only under exceptional circumstances may the four week "notice period" between filing of the motion paperwork and the date for hearing be shortened (See "Special" and "Emergency Situations" below). The purpose of the notice period is to allow the other party who has been served with the motion paperwork to consider the matter and file and serve a response (See "Service" and "Filing" sections below). The delay between initial filing and the court hearing also provides parties on a child custody motion the time to attend orientation and mediation prior to the court

- hearing date (See “Mediation” section below). The court expects both sides to have attempted to resolve each issue raised by the moving and responding paperwork prior to attending the court hearing (See “Meet and Confer” section below). At the court hearing the judge will generally make a determination on the motion based upon the evidence found in the moving and responding papers (See “Hearing” section below).
- (b) Standard Practice- Regularly Noticed Hearing. The moving party for any regularly noticed motion or order to show cause (without temporary orders) shall choose a convenient hearing date and enter the requested date on the moving papers along with the appropriate time and department. Hearings on Family Law motions or orders to show cause are regularly heard on Tuesdays at 9:00 am in Department 1. In selecting the requested hearing date, the moving party must observe filing and service time lines of the Code of Civil Procedure § 1005. That law requires filing the moving papers at least 16 court days prior to the hearing date and where a motion is served by mail (orders to show cause must be personally served) the 16 court days does not start until 5 calendar days after the date of mailing. Motions or orders to show cause involving child custody and visitation, where no temporary orders have issued, will generally be set approximately forty five (45) calendar days from the date of initial filing so that mediation may be completed prior to the hearing. If the court rejects the requested date, time and/or department entered on the moving papers, the court clerk will so advise the moving party who is then responsible for providing the responding party with adequate notice of the new date, time and/or department for the hearing.
  - (c) Special Situations – Shortening Standard Time for Hearing. An order shortening time for service of notice and hearing (per CCP § 1005) will only be granted where the application is supported by a declaration demonstrating good cause to shorten the regular notice period.
  - (d) Emergency Situations – Temporary Orders Upon 1 Day Prior Notice of Hearing. To request an ex-parte hearing you must telephone the court clerk at (209) 754-6310 no later than 2:00 pm the court day prior to the requested hearing date. The moving party’s pleadings should be filed with the court no later than 4:00 pm the court day prior to the ex-parte hearing. Ex-parte applications for temporary orders are only granted where strict compliance with California Rules of Court, Rule 379 is demonstrated by the moving papers. Applicants requesting an ex-parte hearing should complete local form “Application for Immediate Court Hearing and Order” [Local Form A-1] which is filed with the moving papers. Upon issuance of temporary orders, the court will select the hearing date.
  - (e) Emergency Situations – Temporary Orders without Prior Notice or Hearing. Temporary orders will only be granted without prior notice to the other party where the application for the temporary orders contains evidence that clearly demonstrates great or irreparable injury will result to the applicant before the matter can be heard on notice or injury will result if prior notice is given. Upon issuance of temporary orders, the court will select the hearing date. (Eff. 1/1/03.)

5.3 Service of Notice / Pleadings of Family Law Motion Hearings (Eff. 1/1/03.)

- (a) Standard Practice – Service of Pleadings by the Moving Party. The moving party's pleadings as well as any required blank responsive pleadings must be served on the opposing party or attorney in accordance with the time frames mandated in Code of Civil Procedure § 1005 and Family Code § 215, unless an order shortening time for service or temporary orders has been obtained. Where service of process of a motion or order to show cause has not been completed in a timely fashion, a written order continuing the matter to a new date must be obtained prior to or at the original hearing date in order to keep the matter on calendar.
- (b) Service of Pleadings where Temporary Orders have Issued. Where temporary orders have been issued by the court, the responding party must be served with the moving papers, temporary court orders as well as any required blank responsive pleadings within five (5) days of issuance of the temporary orders unless the order specifically designates a shorter time for service. Where service of process has not been completed in a timely fashion, a written order continuing the matter to a new date must be obtained prior to or at the original hearing date in order to keep the hearing on calendar and temporary orders in effect.
- (c) Service of Responsive Pleadings. The response to the motion must be served in a manner reasonably calculated to ensure delivery to the other party not later than one (1) court day after the responding papers are filed with the court. See below for the applicable times for filing. (Eff. 1/1/03.)

5.4 Filing Family Law Motions with the Court (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended eff. 7/1/05.)

- (a) Filing of Applications for Orders. The moving party must file the moving papers, including application, declaration(s), points and authorities, proposed order(s) and any other supporting documents, by mail or hand delivery to the court's filing window at a time no less than sixteen (16) court days prior to the hearing unless the court has granted an order shortening time or temporary orders. Motions or orders to show cause involving child custody and visitation, where no temporary orders have issued, must generally be filed approximately forty five (45) days prior to the date of hearing so that mediation may be completed prior to the hearing.
- (b) Responsive Pleadings. The responding party generally must file any responsive pleadings, including declarations, objections and / or points and authorities, with the court no less than nine (9) court days prior to the date of hearing unless the court specifically ordered another time for filing.

- (c) Proof of Service. The moving party is advised to file the proof of service of the moving party's pleadings with the court at the time of filing the motion, and when that is not possible the proof of service must be filed with the court no less than five (5) calendar days before the hearing. If no timely proof of service has been filed and no responsive pleadings or stipulations are in file, the court may drop the matter from the calendar.
- (d) Financial Declarations. A completed Income and Expense Declaration, Financial Statement (Simplified), and / or Property Declaration must be attached to and filed with any application for order when relevant to the relief requested. Such financial declarations, even where no change of circumstances are alleged, are deemed current only if executed within 90 days of the hearing determining the relief requested.
- (e) Medical, Psychological or Educational Reports. Medical, psychological, educational or other types of reports concerning the child shall not be attached to motions filed with court, but shall be provided to the court at the time of hearing. Such reports or documentation not filed with the court, which a party intends to present to the court and rely upon at the hearing, must have been served on the other parties with the moving, responding or reply papers in accordance with applicable law and these Local Rules. No reports or documents submitted by a party will be considered by the court unless there is a stipulation or a proper evidentiary foundation is established. (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended eff. 7/1/05.)

5.5 Child Custody Mediation (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended, eff. 7/1/05.)

- (a) Mandatory Pre-Hearing Mediation Program. When any noticed motion or order to show cause (hereinafter "motion") is filed placing child custody and/or visitation at issue, the parties are required to participate in the child custody mediation program prior to the court hearing. The moving party on the child custody and/or visitation motion must timely serve the responding party with the court issued "Mediation Referral and Information Packet" prior to the orientation session and thereafter the moving party must file proof of service of the Mediation Referral and Information Packet with the court prior to the motion hearing date. Failure of the moving party to timely serve the appropriate "Mediation Referral and Information Packet" and file proof of service of said packet may result in court sanctions including delay or denial of the child custody and/or visitation motion.
- (b) Pre-Mediation Orientation. Prior to attending mediation, parents are generally required to attend an orientation session provided by Family Court Services. If a party wishes separate attendance at orientation, that party should inform Family Court Services to make arrangements accordingly. Sanctions, including summary denial of the motion, evidentiary sanctions, continuances and/or monetary payments may be ordered against a party or the party's attorney for noncompliance with the requirement to attend orientation.

- (c) Mediation. The moving and responding parties on a child custody or visitation motion shall attend and participate in mediation to attempt to reach agreement on all contested issues. The agreement(s) reached in mediation will not become court orders until the agreement(s) are affirmed by the parties, or their attorneys, in open court session or by written stipulation. Where the moving party does not cooperate in attending mediation the court will generally deny that party's motion unless good cause is shown for the failure to participate. (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended, eff. 7/1/05.)

5.6 Pre-Hearing Meet and Confer / Exchange of Documents (Eff. 1/1/03.)

- (a) Meet and Confer Requirements. Once responsive papers have been filed and served, the moving party or their attorney shall contact the opposing party or attorney in advance of the hearing to meet, confer, and ascertain which issues can be settled without a contested hearing.
- (b) Exchange of Documents. A party may not wait until the time of the hearing to "surprise" the opposing party with documents or other evidence. Absent good cause shown or an order shortening time, all evidence that any party intends to rely upon at the hearing must be included in the moving, responding and reply papers served and filed pursuant to CCP § 1005. (Eff. 1/1/03.)

5.7 Hearings on Family Law Motions (Eff. 1/1/03.)

- (a) Time Limit. All hearings on the Family Law motion calendar are limited to ten (10) minutes or less. The transfer of a hearing from the motion calendar to longer hearing calendar shall be at the sole discretion of the court.
- (b) Evidence Considered. The parties must be prepared to submit their cases based upon the filed pleadings, declarations, and for good cause shown, by offers of proof. Generally, live testimony by witnesses is not permitted on the Family Law motion calendar.
- (c) Offer of Proof. An offer of proof is a succinct statement given by a party or counsel that states what a particular witness would say if called to the stand. Offers of proof are subject to the same evidentiary objections as live testimony and should be distinguished and presented separately from argument. Offers of proof will only be accepted in the court's discretion and will generally require a preliminary showing of why the testimony could not have been included in the party's filed declarations.
- (d) Live Witness Testimony. Live testimony is generally not allowed on the Family Law motion. A party seeking to introduce oral evidence at a hearing set by the court for that purpose must comply with the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 323. Except for good cause shown, oral evidence will not be heard where the party has not demonstrated compliance with that Rule. (Eff. 1/1/03.)

5.8 Orders on Motions and Stipulations (Eff. 1/1/03.)

- (a) Written and Signed Stipulations. All stipulations recited in open court must thereafter be reduced to writing and signed by the parties or their attorneys if appropriate.
- (b) Orders after Hearing. The prevailing party is responsible for preparing the order after hearing, submitting it to the other side for review and approval and thereafter forwarding the proposed order to the court for entry. Orders may be submitted directly to the court only when so ordered or upon a reasonable written explanation for the failure to obtain the other party's prior approval. (Eff. 1/1/03.)

5.9 Trial (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended, eff. 7/1/03.)

- (a) Filing the At-issue Memorandum. A matter is "at-issue" after a response to the petition has been filed. Once a matter is at issue, it may be set for trial. Either party may file an at-issue memorandum to set contested issues for trial. Generally, any contested issues of child custody and / or visitation must be determined first at a bifurcated trial prior to any other contested matters being set for trial. The court will respond to a request for trial by setting the matter for mandatory settlement and trial setting conference, setting the matter for case management, setting the matter for trial or denial of the request as the case is not at issue or other good cause is shown for a delay.
- (b) Mandatory Settlement and Trial Setting Conference. Matters proceeding to trial on contested issues will be set for a mandatory settlement and trial setting conference. Parties must participate in the settlement conference and submit to the court settlement conference statements five (5) court days prior to the conference pursuant to California Rules of Court 222 and Local rule 3.6. Trial on any remaining contested issues will be set at the conclusion of the settlement conference. (Eff. 1/1/03; As amended, eff. 7/1/03.)

- (e) Objections. No preemptory challenge of evaluators shall be allowed. Parties may raise objections to a specific evaluator during the selection process. Parties may object to the conclusions of the report when the report is submitted to the court, and may introduce other appropriate expert testimony to object to the conclusions.
- (f) Complaints. If a party alleges that the evaluator has acted in an unprofessional or inappropriate manner, the party may discuss the complaint with the evaluator, otherwise, or thereafter if the matter is not solved, all complaints shall be directed in writing, on the court approved form, to the Family Court Services Director. - (g) Costs. The court will order payment of the evaluation at the time of the appointment. In most cases the parties will share equally in the costs of the evaluation and the drafting of the report. Payment of the expert to appear at a hearing and/or testify shall be at the sole expense of the party requiring the expert's presence before the court. The parties may seek an order allocating the costs of the evaluation in a manner other than an equal division at the time of selection of the evaluator. (Eff. 7/1/01; As amended, eff. 1/1/04.)

- (a) Petitions for appointment of a guardian ad litem for a minor or incompetent person shall be submitted to the clerk. When an application is made for appointment of a guardian ad litem and the nominee for appointment is a plaintiff in the same action with the ward, or in some manner was a participant in the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the alleged injury to the ward, the nominee will ordinarily not be appointed unless the application is accompanied by:
  - (1) A declaration under penalty of perjury setting forth facts establishing that no other parent, relative, or friend can or will accept the appointment of guardian ad litem for the minor in the action; and
  - (2) A declaration under penalty of perjury by the attorney for the nominee stating that the attorney, having investigated the circumstances, has represented to the nominee and represents to the court that there is no conflict of interest between the nominee and the minor if the nominee is appointed the guardian ad litem.
  - (3) If an attorney's contract is submitted for approval at the time of appointment of a guardian ad litem, approval thereof will not be considered approval of a fee. If a lien on any recovery is provided for in such a contract, such will be allowed only to the extent of costs and services actually and reasonably provided on behalf of the ward. (Eff. 7/1/98.)

7.2.2 Compromise of Claims and Attorney's Fees (Eff. 1/1/02.)

- (a) A petition to compromise a minor's or incompetent's claim pursuant to Section 372 of the Code of Civil Procedure or any petition for approval of a claim under the provisions of Section 3500 of the Probate Code shall contain the following information:
- (1) Facts - A brief statement which sets forth the facts which establish liability. This statement shall include the name and birth date of the minor or incompetent person as well as a copy of any existing accident investigation report of any police agency.
  - (2) Medical Issues - A statement which outlines all medical treatment furnished, to date, what future medical, if any, is expected to be required and the nature and extent of any permanent injuries sustained by the minor. This statement shall be supported by a current report or letter from the treating physician outlining the present condition and prognosis of the minor or incompetent person.
  - (3) Medical Expenses - The total medical expenses incurred by the minor to date and the estimated cost of any anticipated medical attention which will be required in the future.
  - (4) Reasonableness of Fees - A reasonably detailed declaration setting forth all effort expended on behalf of the minor in obtaining the settlement and how it was expended. Absent unusual circumstances or conditions, the approved attorney fees for a minor's compromise case should not exceed twenty-five percent of the settlement amount, if the settlement occurs before the case is assigned to a department for trial. The declaration should address all of the following factors: What was the degree of difficulty involved? How much skill was needed and employed? . How much risk was there of a poor final result for the amount of work done? How much money, if any, did the attorney advance? How many hours of work did the attorney do? and Whether the attorney's fee is contingent on recovery. For additional information see Niederer v. Ferriera, [1987] 189 Cal. App. 3d 1485.
  - (5) Available Coverage - Where the injuries (damages) clearly exceed the amount of the insurance policy being offered, the statement shall also include a recitation of all steps taken to determine if any additional coverage or assets are available from which the minor could seek compensation.
  - (6) Reasonableness of Settlement - Any additional information that may be of assistance to the court in determining if the petition should be granted or would assist the court in determining reasonable compensation for the attorney in the case. This statement shall include the amounts, if any, paid, or to be paid, to any other claimants, including whether the guardian ad litem is a plaintiff in any action arising from these facts or circumstances and any sums received therefore.

- (b) Costs - Allowable costs (CCP 1033.5) paid or incurred by the attorney will ordinarily be deducted from the judgment/settlement prior to computation of fees.
- (c) Settlement Proceeds - If the petition for approval of a claim under Section 3500(b) of the Probate Code relates to a structured settlement calling for future periodic payments, the petition shall state the cost of the annuity. In cases involving minors, the order shall contain the date when the minor will attain the age of 18 years and a directive to the bank, trust company or other financial institution to release all funds to the minor on such date without further order from the court. In any case in which the court orders the sum to be received by the minor to be deposited in a financial institution, the order shall contain the further order that, "A certified copy of this order shall be delivered to the manager of said financial institution, together with the sum to be deposited therein, and that there shall be a written receipt of said financial institution forthwith filed with the clerk of the court in which the compromise was approved, acknowledging receipt of both the sum deposited and said order. (Eff. 1/1/02.)

7.2.3 Withdrawal of Funds (Eff. 7/1/98.)

Requests for withdrawal of funds deposited for minors prior to age of majority and/or incompetent persons will be allowed only upon a verified petition, and subject to the following:

- (a) The certificate of deposit must have been completed and filed prior to filing of the petition for withdrawal.
- (b) In the event the petition to withdraw funds is based upon the denial of a public agency providing public assistance to provide funds because of the existence of the account, a copy of the written notice from the agency concerned, so stating, shall be attached to the petition.
- (c) In addition to the trustee/guardian, minors age fourteen (14) or over shall sign and date the application.
- (d) Except for withdrawals to pay taxes on minor's funds, orders for withdrawals will ordinarily not be granted if either or both parents are living and financially able to pay the requested expenditure.
- (e) Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the order, a declaration of expenditures made with the funds shall be filed with the clerk. (Eff. 7/1/98.)

CHAPTER 8 - JUVENILE RULES

8.1 Appointment of Counsel in Juvenile Dependency Proceedings (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 7/1/02.)

- (a) Purpose and Applicability. This rule is established to comply with Sections 317 et. seq. of the Welfare and Institutions Code and Rule 1438 of the California Rules of Court.
- (b) General Competency Requirement. All attorneys appearing in juvenile dependency proceedings must meet minimum standards of competence as set forth in California Rules of Court, Rule 1438(c). This rule is applicable to attorneys employed by public agencies, attorneys appointed by the court to represent any party in juvenile dependency proceeding, and attorneys who are privately retained to represent a party to a juvenile dependency proceeding.
- (c) Screening for Competency:
  - (1) All attorneys who represent parties in juvenile court proceedings shall meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience as set forth above. Any attorney appearing in a dependency matter for the first time shall complete and submit a Certificate of Competence to the court within 10 days of his or her first appearance in a dependency matter.
  - (2) Attorneys who meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience as set forth above, as demonstrated by the information contained in the Certificate of Competence submitted to the court, shall be deemed competent to practice before the Juvenile Court in dependency cases except as provided in subdiv. 3.
  - (3) Notwithstanding the submission of a Certificate of Competence which demonstrates that the attorney has met the minimum standards for training and/or experience, the court may determine, based on conduct or performance of counsel before the court in a dependency proceeding, that a particular attorney does not meet minimum competency standards. In such case, the court shall proceed as set forth in section F of this rule.
  - (4) In the case of an attorney who maintains his or her principal office outside of this county, proof of certification by the Juvenile Court of the California county in which the attorney maintains an office shall be sufficient evidence of competence to appear in a juvenile proceeding in this county.
- (d) Minimum Standards of Education and Training.
  - (1) Each attorney appearing in a dependency matter before the Juvenile Court shall not seek certification of competency and shall not be certified by the court as competent until the attorney has completed the minimum training and education requirements established by California Rules of Court, Rule 1438(c).
  - (2) In order to retain his or her certification to practice before the Juvenile Court, each attorney who has been previously certified by the court shall submit a new Certificate of Competence to the court on or before January 31 of the third year after the year in which the attorney is first certified and then every third year thereafter. The attorney shall attach to the renewal Certificate of Competence evidence that he or she has complied with California Rules of Court, Rule 1438(c).

- (3) When a certified attorney fails to submit evidence that he or she has completed at least the minimum-required training and education to the court by the due date, the court shall notify the attorney that he or she will be decertified. The attorney shall have 20 days from the date of the mailing of the notice to submit evidence of his or her completion of the required training or education. If the attorney fails to submit the required evidence or fails to complete the required minimum hours of continuing training or education, the court shall order, except in cases where a party is represented by retained counsel, that certified counsel be substituted for the attorney who fails to complete the required training. In the case of retained counsel, the court shall notify the party that his or her counsel has failed to meet the minimum standards required by the rule. The determination whether to obtain substitute counsel shall be solely within the discretion of the party so notified.
- (e) Standards of Representation. All attorneys appearing in dependency proceedings shall meet the minimum standards of representation as set forth in California Rules of Court, Rule 1438(c)(4).
- (f) Procedures for Reviewing and Resolving Complaints:
  - (1) Any party to a juvenile court proceeding may lodge a written complaint with the court concerning the performance of his or her appointed attorney in a Juvenile Court proceeding. In the case of a complaint concerning the performance of an attorney appointed to represent a minor, the complaint may be lodged on the child's behalf by the social worker, a caretaker relative, or a foster parent.
  - (2) Each appointed attorney shall give written notice to his or her adult client of the procedure for lodging complaints with the court concerning the performance of an appointed attorney. The notice shall be given to the client within 10 days of the attorney's appointment to represent the client. Evidence that a copy of said notice was given or mailed to the client shall be provided to the court within 10 days of a request therefore from the court. In the case of a minor client, the notice shall be mailed or given to the current caretaker of the child. If the minor is 12 years of age or older, a copy of the notice shall be provided to the minor.
  - (3) The court shall review a complaint within 10 days of receipt. If the court determines that the complaint presents reasonable cause to believe that the attorney may have failed to act competently or has violated local rules, the court shall notify the attorney in question of the complaint and shall give the attorney 20 days from the date of the notice to respond to the complaint in writing.

- (4) After a response has been filed by the attorney or the time for submission of a response has passed, the court shall review the complaint and the response, if any, to determine whether the attorney acted contrary to law, these rules or has otherwise acted incompetently. The court may ask the complainant or the attorney for additional information prior to making a determination on the complaint.
  - (5) If, after reviewing the complaint, the response, and any additional information, the court finds that the attorney acted contrary to the law or these rules of the court, the court may reprove the attorney, either privately or publicly, and may, in cases of willful or egregious violations of his or her duties, issue such reasonable monetary sanctions against the attorney as the court may deem appropriate.
  - (6) If, after reviewing the complaint, the response, and any additional information, the court finds that the attorney acted incompetently, the court may order that the attorney practice under the supervision of a mentor attorney for a period of at least six months, that the attorney complete a specified number of hours of training or education in a specific area of study. In cases in which the attorney's conduct caused actual harm to his or her client, the court shall order that competent counsel be substituted for the attorney found to have been incompetent and may, in the court's discretion, refer the matter to the State Bar of California for further action.
  - (7) The court shall notify the attorney and the complaining party in writing of its determination of the complaint. The complaining party or the attorney shall have ten days after the date of the notice to request a review by another judge concerning the court's proposed action. If the complaining party or attorney does not request a review within that period of time, the court's determination shall become final.
  - (8) If a review is requested, it shall be completed as soon as practicable after the request therefore, but in no case shall it be completed more than 30 days after it has been requested, except by stipulation of the parties. The review shall not be open to the public.
  - (9) Within ten days after the review, the reviewing judge shall issue a written determination upholding, reversing, or amending the court's original determination. A copy of the review decision shall be provided to both the complainant and the attorney. The determination after review shall be final.
- (g) Procedures for Informing the Court of the Interests of a Dependent Child:
- (1) At any time during the pendency of a dependence proceeding, any interested person may notify the court that the minor, who is the subject of the proceeding, may have an interest or right which needs to be protected or pursued in another judicial or administrative forum. If counsel for the minor becomes aware that the minor may have a right or interest which needs to be protected or pursued in another judicial or administrative forum, counsel for the minor shall notify the court of such right or interest as soon as it is reasonably possible for counsel to do so.

- (2) Notice to the court may be given by the filing and service on all parties of a declaration. The person giving notice shall set forth the nature of the interest or right which needs to be protected or pursued, the name and address, if known, of the administrative agency or judicial forum in which the right or interest may be affected and the nature of the proceedings being contemplated or conducted there.
  - (3) If the person filing the notice is the counsel for the minor, the notice shall state what action on the child's behalf the attorney believes is necessary, whether the attorney is willing or able to pursue the matter on the child's behalf, whether the association of counsel specializing in practice before that agency or court may be necessary or appropriate, whether the appointment of a guardian ad litem may be necessary to initiate or pursue the proposed action, whether joinder of an administrative agency to the Juvenile Court proceedings pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code §362 may be appropriate or necessary to protect or pursue the child's interests, and whether further investigation may be necessary.
  - (4) The court may set a hearing on the notice if the court deems it necessary in order to determine the nature of the child's right or interest or whether said interest should be protected or pursued.
- (h) Time Lines. Attorneys for parties are required to adhere to the statutory time lines for all hearings. Time waivers will be accepted and continuances granted only on a showing of exceptional circumstances. (Eff. 7/1/98; As amended, eff. 7/1/02.)

8.2 Juvenile Facsimile Filings (Eff. 1/1/01.)

The court does not accept the direct filing of documents pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2006 or Rule 1406.5 except upon exceptional circumstances and after obtaining leave of court. (Eff. 1/1/01.)

8.3 Authorization to Administer Psychotropic Medications (Eff. 7/1/01.)

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 1432.5(i), absent prior court order granting authorization, psychotropic medication may not be administered to a child declared a ward of the court, under Welfare & Institutions Code § 601 or 602, where such child has been removed from the custody of the parent or guardian. The procedure for obtaining court authorization is provided in California Rules of Court, Rule 1432.5. (Eff. 7/1/01.)

8.4 Juvenile, Probate and Family Courts Exchange of Information (Eff. 7/1/02, As amended, eff 7/1/03.)

The Probation Department, Family Court Services, and the Calaveras Works and Human Services Agency may disclose to each other information concerning or relating to any dependent minor, ward, or conservatee who is the subject of any investigation or any matter pending before the court as necessary for each entity to carry out its duties to the court. Confidential information exchanged under this rule remains confidential and shall not be further released except as provided by law or court order. (Eff. 7/1/02, As amended, eff 7/1/03.)
